I need to remember to: Get a witness to sign my absentee ballot request form Send a copy of my photo ID Get a witness/notary to sign my absentee ballot before I return it

My Notes

After you've set up your voting plan, make sure to take time to research your candidates and the issues on the ballot for both federal and local elections. Divide your time effectively; researching periodically, reading the news for a few minutes each day, and paying close attention to issues in your community can help inform the decisions you make on your ballot.
